DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claims 1-6, drawn to an apparatus for producing corrected nuclear images of a patient including a controller to control the modes of operation, classified in class 250, subclass 363.04.
 - II. Claims 7, 8, 48, 49, 51-63, drawn to a nuclear camera including an X-ray imager with the specifics of the positions of the source and detectors around the patient, classified in class 250, subclass 370.09.
 - III. Claims 29-47, drawn to a method of imaging including an X-ray source and a gamma camera with the specifics of determining the extent of radioactive region in the body, classified in class 250, subclass 363.02.
2. The inventions listed as Groups I, II and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The apparatus of invention II does not require the specific modes of operation of invention I, which is the inventive concept of invention I, and invention I does not require the specific positioning of the gamma camera and the X-ray imager around the patient, which is the inventive concept of invention II. The apparatus of invention II has separate utility such as taking an image of a patient without following any gated modes of operation as required in invention I. Also, the method of imaging of invention III does not require the particulars of the controller of invention I or the particular positioning capabilities of the gamma camera and the X-ray imager of invention II. Also none of the inventions I and II require the specific step of determining an extent of a radioactive region of interest in the body of the patient. The invention of group III has separate utility such as determining the extent of the radioactive region in a patient.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I and II is not required for Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. A telephone call was made to William Dippert on 10/27/2003 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
